New to the St. Patrick's Irish Open...Mike's Metro Air Support Golf Ball Drop! In honor of all the men and women serving as police officers in our community.

You could win $5,000!

How to play:

Buy a golf ball and receive a ticket with a number that corresponds to a number on a golf ball. On June 1st, the day of the 25th Annual St. Patrick's Irish Open golf tournament, the Metro Air Support Unit will drop the numbered golf balls from their helicopter over the driving range at Norwood Hills Country Club.

Prize:

The golf ball that lands in the hole will win half of the proceeds collected with a maximum prize amount of $5,000. If no golf ball lands in the hole, the ball closest to the hole will win one fourth of the proceeds collected with a maximum prize amount of $2,500.

Price to play:

$50 per golf ball or 3 golf balls for $100
